IN BRIEF

This house is conveniently located - a short drive to Pontarion for bread and other commerce, but with no immediate neighbours and a countryside view. The swimming lakes are not far, local markets, the historic tapestry town of Aubusson, or medieval Bourgneuf with its Zizim Tower, friendly cinema and independent shops.

DESCRIPTION

Together, these two adjoining houses offer a large family home, a gîte project, or a versatile multi-family property surrounded by nature. The property is easily accessible from the main Bourganeuf to Aubusson road, but is at the end of a little cul-de-sac used only by the owners. The house and garden is not overlooked and the balcony looks out across the surrounding countryside.

The first house, approximately 80 m², offers a warm and inviting open family living and dining space, (45 m²) with two sets of patio doors that open onto a terrace and the back garden. This room has a mezzanine (office or guest sleeping space) and double-height ceiling. There is an insert fireplace for cosy nights by the fire, but the main source of heating is by ceiling-generated electric heating.

Next to this large room is a fully-fitted dining kitchen, with doors directly out to the back garden.

This section of the house also includes, on the same level, a bedroom, a shower room, a separate toilet, and an internal door and staircase down to the basement level.

The basement provides plenty of additional space, including a garage, workshop, cellar, utility area and an extra room—ideal for storage, hobbies, or further expansion, or car garaging.

The second house, approximately 90 m² (the original house), offers a generous 30+m² living room with open fireplace, a fitted kitchen, two bedrooms on the first floor, and an office or small bedroom, a small additional...
