DESCRIPTION

A Turnkey Hospitality Facility with Room to Grow

An exceptional opportunity to step into the shoes of an established guest accommodation facility, set in the beautiful Haute-Vienne countryside with breathtaking views.

Whether you are looking to run a thriving hospitality business, create a lifestyle venture in France, or expand an existing tourism operation, this property offers an impressive combination of character, flexibility, guest accommodation and development potential.

The Main House

The spacious main house offers generous living and entertaining areas, with the potential to create an additional ground-floor bedroom — allowing the existing first-floor rooms to be utilized for further guest accommodation.

Ground Floor

A large, open-plan dining room flows seamlessly into the fully equipped kitchen, creating a wonderful space for entertaining and preparing meals. The dining room features a beautiful stone fireplace, large tiled floor and abundant natural light from three directions. A second wood-burning stove provides the central heating.

The large cosy lounge is a welcoming retreat, featuring original wooden floors and another log burner — perfect for relaxing at the end of the day.

Also on the ground floor are:

A second large kitchen, ideal for catering for guests. An atelier/storage area and a ground-floor bathroom with bath and W/C

There is potential to create an additional ground-floor bedroom, freeing up the four existing first-floor bedrooms for guest use

First Floor

A fantastic entertaining and accommodation space with enormous potential.

There are four big bedrooms, an office area, a shower room with W/C, and an impressive 40m²+
