IN BRIEF

Villeneuve-lès-Bouloc : A Rare Property Full of Character and History.

Just a few minutes from the A62 motorway entrance, this exceptional 107 m² two-storey apartment occupies a truly unique setting: a beautifully converted former 18th-century chapel, adjoining the château.

A rare and characterful property, ideal for international buyers looking for something different from a conventional home — combining historic charm, architectural features and modern comfort.

The property has been recently renovated to provide modern standards of comfort while retaining the unique atmosphere and character of the former chapel.

The apartment also benefits from the private use of a charming garden of approximately 200 m². A rare and valuable feature for a property of this nature.
