Nearly 395 m² of usable space, a swimming pool, a separate apartment and over 4,000 m² of landscaped grounds: a property designed for those who need room to live, work and entertain.

Set in a peaceful and leafy residential area of Saint-Cézaire-sur-Siagne, this Provençal-style property was built in 2004. It offers 248.80 m² of living accommodation and nearly 395 m² of total usable space.

Its highly versatile layout is equally suited to a large family, multigenerational living, regular guests, home working or a creative or professional home-based activity.

The landscaped grounds extend to over 4,000 m² and create an attractive Mediterranean setting around the house. The swimming pool, olive trees, mature planting and several terraces provide a peaceful environment in which to enjoy the Côte d'Azur climate.

Facing south, the large covered terrace overlooks the garden and swimming pool. It becomes a genuine outdoor living area for shaded lunches, entertaining friends and family and enjoying long summer evenings.

On the main level, the entrance opens onto a recently fitted and fully equipped kitchen adjoining an approximately 54 m² living and dining area. A wood-burning insert creates a warm and welcoming atmosphere, while the reception space flows directly onto the covered terrace.

The ground-floor sleeping area includes three bedrooms, one of which is an approximately 30 m² principal bedroom with its own shower room. A family bathroom, separate WC and utility room complete this level.

Upstairs, an attractive mezzanine with exposed
